My Aged Care

My Aged Care provides funding to eligible people over the age of 65. (50 years or older for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people). If you need some help around the house or think it's time to look into aged care homes, My Aged Care is here to help.

NDIS – National Disability Insurance Scheme

The NDIS provides funding to eligible people with disability to gain more time with family and friends, greater independence and an improved quality of life. The NDIS also connects anyone with disability to service providers in your area.

Kalamunda Compassionate Communities

Creating compassionate and caring neighbourhoods who support each other to help build strong, connected and happy communities to live, play and die in.

This support can be as simple as putting out the bins, dropping of some milk, helping with a doona cover, taking their dog for a walk, reading to the sick person or listening to their story.

The City has published two guides:

Accessible and Inclusive Business Guide

Find out how you can make your business more accessible to customers with a disability.

Creating an Accessible Event

This guide is designed to help those responsible for organising events to increase accessibility and inclusion.

The City of Kalamunda welcomes all abilities and champions inclusion and always looks to improve accessibility and inclusivity in everything we do. Please reach out to discuss how we can help champion social inclusion within the City of Kalamunda.
