O'CONNOR, Peter

After serving in the Australian Defence Force for many years, I spend most of my time now looking after my family and running a small business.

I am very passionate about our local community and want to see it thrive. The City has many economic and strategic challenges ahead of it. A united team in Council is vital to tackle these demands for us all.

I am very eager to work with a team that engages the wider community to deliver better infrastructure and essential services to ensure the City of Kalamunda remains one of the best places to live in WA. I believe I have the discipline and drive to be your voice in our local government. I will listen! It was a privilege to serve the people of Australia in uniform and it would be an honour to do so as your councillor for the City of Kalamunda.
