6A. Conditions applying to certain exemptions under cl. 4: life support equipment

- (1) In this clause —

appropriately qualified medical practitioner has the meaning given in the Code of Conduct for the Supply of Electricity to Small Use Customers 2016 clause 1.5;

commencement day means the day on which the Electricity Industry Exemption Amendment Order 2018 clause 6 comes into operation;

contact details, of a person, means the person's telephone number and email address, as nominated by the person;

exempt supplier means a person who is exempt from the Electricity Industry Act 2004 section 7(3) and (4) under clause 4(2) and (4);

life support equipment means equipment of a type specified for the purposes of the Life Support Equipment Electricity Subsidy Scheme, as administered by the Department of Finance immediately before commencement day;

registered property, in relation to an exempt supplier, means a property included in the register kept by the exempt supplier in accordance with this clause;

retailer means a person who holds —

- (a) a retail licence; or
- (b) an integrated regional licence that authorises the licensee to sell electricity;

supply address, in relation to an exempt supplier, means the property in relation to which the person is exempt under clause 4(2) and (4).

- (2) An exempt supplier must, in accordance with this clause, keep a register of properties at the supply address at which a person who requires life support equipment resides.
- (3) If an exempt supplier is given written confirmation, by an appropriately qualified medical practitioner, that a person residing at a property at the supply address requires life support equipment, the exempt supplier must —
  - (a) include the property in the register by including its address, and the contact details of the occupier of the property, in the register; and
  - (b) keep a copy of the confirmation; and
  - (c) within 48 hours of being given the confirmation —
    - (i) notify the retailer (if any) who supplies electricity for the supply address, that a person residing at the supply address requires life support equipment; and
    - (ii) give a copy of the confirmation to the retailer.
- (4) If an exempt supplier is informed that there is no person or will, after a specified date, be no person residing at a registered property at the supply address who requires life support equipment, the exempt supplier —

- (a) must, within 48 hours of being informed, pass on that information to the retailer (if any) who supplies electricity for the supply address; and
  - (b) may remove the property from the register accordingly.
- (5) The exempt supplier, in relation to a registered property at the supply address —
- (a) must not interrupt the supply of electricity to the registered property unless —
    - (i) 48 hours' notice has been given to the occupier of the property; or
    - (ii) an occupier of the property consents to the interruption;and
  - (b) must not disconnect the registered property for a failure to pay a fee or charge in relation to the supply of electricity to the property; and
  - (c) must pass on to the occupier of the registered property any notice given to the exempt supplier of an interruption to the supply of electricity to the supply address, within 48 hours of receiving the notice; and
  - (d) must pass on to the occupier of the registered property a request (if relevant) by a retailer for written confirmation by an appropriately qualified medical practitioner that a person residing at the supply address requires or continues to require life support equipment.
- (6) If a person becomes an exempt supplier in relation to a supply address by replacing a previous exempt supplier, the person must, within 48 hours of becoming an exempt supplier in relation to the supply address —
- (a) notify the occupier of each property at the supply address that they have become an exempt supplier in relation to the supply address; and
  - (b) request the occupier to inform them whether or not any person who resides at the property requires life support equipment.

Western Australian Jobs Act 2017

Western Australian Jobs Regulations 2018

Made by the Governor in Executive Council.

1. Citation

These regulations are the Western Australian Jobs Regulations 2018.

2. Commencement

These regulations come into operation on the day on which the Western Australian Jobs Act 2017 section 25 comes into operation.

3. Terms used

In these regulations —

contract value, of a supply, means the total contract value (inclusive of GST) of the supply, as estimated by the procurement agency for the supply;

DCSP Policy means the document titled “Delivering Community Services in Partnership Policy” published by the State government in July 2011 or any document published by the State government in substitution for that document;

Note for this definition:

The DCSP Policy is available on the website of the Department of Finance. The website address is <<https://www.finance.wa.gov.au>>.

GST has the meaning given in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Commonwealth) section 195-1;

metropolitan supply means a supply that involves, or predominantly involves, the supply of goods or services in the metropolitan region as defined in the Planning and Development Act 2005 section 4(1);

regional supply means a supply that involves, or predominantly involves, the supply of goods or services in 1 or more of the regions referred to in the Planning and Development Act 2005 Schedule 4.

4. Criteria for s. 5(1) of Act

- (1) For the purposes of section 5(1) of the Act, the criteria to be met by a metropolitan supply are that —
  - (a) in the case of a supply that only involves the supply of goods or services for or in connection with a public work as defined in the Public Works Act 1902 section 2 — the contract value of the supply exceeds $3 million; and

- (b) in any other case — the contract value of the supply exceeds $1 million.
- (2) For the purposes of section 5(1) of the Act, the criterion to be met by a regional supply is that the contract value of the supply exceeds $500 000.

5. Circumstances for s. 12(2) of Act

For the purposes of section 12(2)(b) of the Act, the obligation in section 12(1) of the Act does not apply to the procurement agency for a WAIPS supply in circumstances where —

- (a) the WAIPS supply only involves the supply of a service to which the DCSP Policy applies; and
- (b) the procurement process for the WAIPS supply is conducted in accordance with the DCSP Policy.

6. Criterion for s. 17(2) of Act

For the purposes of section 17(2) of the Act, the criterion to be met by a WAIPS supply is that the contract value of the WAIPS supply exceeds $25 million.

R. NEILSON, Clerk of the Executive Council.
